SUGARHOUSE TOURS

Maple syrup is one of North America's oldest natural sweeteners, made from the sap of sugar maple trees. Each spring, when days warm above freezing and nights drop below, sap begins to flow. It takes about 40 gallons of sap to produce one gallon of syrup, which is boiled down in sugarhouses until it becomes the familiar amber liquid. Indigenous peoples first developed maple sugaring methods long before European settlers arrived. Today, regions like the Berkshires, Vermont, and Canada are known for maple production. Maple syrup also contains small amounts of minerals and antioxidants, and its flavor can vary each year depending on weather and growing conditions.

PELLETS

Convenient

Pellets are available in 40 lb. bags that are clean and easy to store

Efficient

Pellet fuel is an efficient and cost effective source of heat. The low moisture content increases combustion efficiency and results in high heat output. A single bag of fuel can burn for 24 hours or longer.

Environmentally Friendly

The fuel produced, is clean, reliable heat with low emissions and less than 1% of ash.

Material used is a by-product therefore it is considered a renewable wood resource.

Responsible Harvesting Is the First Step in Producing our Lumber

We mill over four million board feet per year, with most coming from local privately-owned forests. We use only the best cutting processes for minimal impact to the land.

If you are interested in managing or foresting your land of three acres or more, let our family walk it with your family, and we'll give you a free assessment and suggestions on how to best manage your woodlot.

Contact the office by email at

Spring Letter Elimination Grid

As you solve the clues below, cross out the letters from the answers in the grid. When you have solved all the clues correctly, every letter will be crossed out. You can use each letter only once.
Hint: start with the clues that you find easiest. If you get stuck, look at the remaining letters in the grid for a nudge.

1. Pink flowers seen in trees.
2. A 'fever' caused by allergy to pollen.
3. A month in spring.
4. Baby sheep.
5. It goes forward in spring.

THE SPORTS SECTION

Spinner's Aero Exercise Bike

Leaves upright competitors in the dust. Its flywheel resistance bears more resemblance to a road bike than other types of resistance, so it might be easier to adjust to than other indoor exercise bikes. The angled handlebars create a better ergonomic grip for a more comfortable ride too. Used less than 10 times. Like new. $650 paid $1100. 413-441-0211

HOME BUYERS' GUIDE

Spring Is Prime Time for Homebuyers in the Berkshires

Spring is one of the most popular times of year to buy a home in the Berkshires. As the snow melts and the hills begin to turn green again, the local real estate market typically becomes more active. Many sellers wait until spring to list their homes, which means buyers often have a wider selection of properties to choose from compared to the quieter winter months. For anyone looking to settle in this scenic corner of western Massachusetts, spring can be an ideal time to begin the search.

One of the biggest advantages of house hunting in the spring is the ability to see properties at their best. Lawns, gardens, and wooded surroundings begin to come back to life, giving buyers a clearer picture of what a property will look like during the warmer months. This is especially important in the Berkshires, where natural beauty is a major part of the appeal. From rolling farmland and mountain views to quiet lakes and forested back roads, spring showcases the landscape that draws many people to the region.

Spring is also a busy season for open houses and new listings. Families who want to move before the next school year often list their homes in the spring, creating more options for buyers. While this increased inventory can be helpful, it also means competition can be stronger. Well-priced homes in desirable areas such as Lenox, Stockbridge, Great Barrington, and Pittsfield can attract significant interest, so buyers should be prepared to act quickly when they find the right property.

Another benefit of buying in the spring is timing. Purchasing a home in the spring often allows buyers to close and move during the summer, which can make the transition easier for families and those relocating from outside the region. The Berkshires is also a lively place in the summer, with cultural attractions, outdoor recreation, and community events in full swing, making it a great time to settle into a new home.

However, buyers should still approach the market thoughtfully. Working with a knowledgeable local real estate agent can help navigate pricing trends, neighborhoods, and property values throughout Berkshire County. Getting pre-approved for a mortgage before beginning the search can also make the process smoother and help buyers compete in a fast-moving market.

For many people, buying a home in the Berkshires is about more than real estate. It is about finding a place surrounded by natural beauty, small-town charm, and a strong sense of community. Spring simply provides the perfect backdrop for starting that next chapter.

Star Notes: The Hidden Treasures in Your Wallet

If you look closely at the serial number on U.S. paper money, you might occasionally see a small star symbol at the end. These are called star notes, and they are replacement bills printed by the U.S. Bureau of Engraving and Printing.

During the printing process, some bills are damaged or misprinted. Instead of reusing the same serial number, the Bureau prints a replacement bill with a star (*) at the end of the serial number. This keeps the numbering system accurate while allowing defective notes to be removed from circulation.

Star notes can become collectible because far fewer of them are printed than regular notes. The rarity depends on several factors. One important factor is the print run size. Some star notes are printed in runs of only a few hundred thousand, while regular notes may be printed in the tens of millions.

Another factor is circulation survival. Many star notes are used in everyday transactions and become worn, damaged, or destroyed over time. As a result, fewer remain in collectible condition.

Collectors often search for star notes because they represent a small but fascinating printing variation, and certain low-run star notes can be worth significantly more than their face value.

BFAIR Promotes Safety and Awareness During Brain Injury Awareness Month with Free Helmet Distribution and Community "Stand Out" Events

(North Adams, MA) — March is recognized nationwide as Brain Injury Awareness Month, a time dedicated to increasing understanding of brain injuries and promoting prevention, safety, and support for individuals and families impacted.

In the United States, more than 5.3 million children and adults are living with a brain injury — approximately 1 in every 60 people. Acquired brain injuries (ABI) occur after birth and may result in physical, emotional, behavioral, and cognitive challenges. Common causes include trauma, stroke, tumors, degenerative diseases, alcohol and other toxins, and lack of oxygen to the brain.

To help promote brain health and injury prevention, BFAIR will host a free bike helmet distribution for children and adults in Berkshire County and the Pioneer Valley.

With generous support from presenting sponsor Greylock Federal Credit Union and supporting sponsor the Brain Injury Association of Massachusetts (BIA/MA), BFAIR will distribute helmets to encourage safe biking practices and reduce the risk of traumatic brain injuries.

Free Helmet Distribution Event

Wednesday, March 18 | 10:00 AM – 2:00 PM
Helmets will be distributed free of charge while supplies last.

Available:

150 helmets for youth ages 6–13
100 helmets for ages 14 and older

Locations:

Berkshire County
Greylock Federal Credit Union
Allendale Shopping Center
5 Cheshire Road
Pittsfield, MA

Pioneer Valley
All Out Adventures
297 Pleasant Street
Northampton, MA

In addition to brain injury prevention efforts, BFAIR will also participate in activities recognizing Developmental Disabilities Awareness Month, which is observed each March.

Community "Stand Out" for Awareness

On Monday, March 23 at 6:30 PM, BFAIR staff, supporters, and community members will gather at local City Halls for a visible show of support and inclusion. City buildings, along with BFAIR offices and program locations, will be lit orange in recognition of Developmental Disabilities Awareness Month.

Participating City Halls:

Pittsfield City Hall – Pittsfield, MA
North Adams City Hall – North Adams, MA
Westfield City Hall – Westfield, MA

These events highlight BFAIR's ongoing commitment to safety, inclusion, and community education across the regions it serves.
